PUBLIC: None

2. Minutes: Motion by Robert Zimmerman, seconded by Anson Seeno and approved unanimously to accept the March 27, 2018 minutes as amended.

3. Public Comment:

Jason Finnerty of TCRPC gave information on the following:

- Jason received his fifth Municipality in the Local Planning Assistance program. He now handles Marysville, New Bloomfield, Rye, Newport, and Spring.
- Regional Transportation Plan is reaching out to the Amish in some particular areas. There were meetings recently in Elliotsburg, Newville and Upper Dauphin to discuss safety issues. The Amish has opened our eyes in regards to the rumble strips how it effects the horses. The horses are having their hoofs getting caught in the rubble strips.

This information will be shared with PennDot.

- Ag Security Area
 - Penn is enrolling three properties, a ten acre lot, three acre lot and one other.
- River land Study 11/15 / 322
In the Clarks Ferry commercial area there is serious discussion limiting left turn movements, dividers on the road will be placed for safety reasons.
- Yingst Homes, Inc. is putting a development off 849 near Duncannon, to the left from coming from the subway. The development will consist of 55 single homes and 75 double families home.

4. Old Business:
Planning Commission continue to work on the Zoning Ordinance.
5. New Business:
PATH (PA Training Hub for Municipal Learning) is offering a class in Duties of the Planning Commission from 6:00pm to 9:00pm on June 7, 2018 at the Hampton Inn in Chambersburg.
