New Business

1. Lions Club Memo of Understanding

The committee was presented with the memo of understanding from the Lions Club. There was discussion on a few of the items especially the exchange of labor for free use of the Lions Club ground for Borough Events. The Committee recommend that the Brough Solicitor review the memo and that if he found no issues that it be placed on the workshop session agenda for discussion.

2. Lions Club Survey

This was discussed and the committee recommend that it be sent to the financial committee to discuss where the money would come from. The Committee also made know that it was tied into the memo getting approved.
