Public Comment

Jeff Hill spoke for his mother, Barbara Hill regarding the water main break on Linden Avenue with the damage to her foundation. Jeff has contacted Suez daily since the water main break. Suez is not responding to the phone calls. Jeff asked if the borough has a contact for Suez. Scott said Bill Carrington or Bob Hollenbach.

There are three different patches of three breaks on Linden Avenue.

There was a delayed response from Suez. The emergency line was not working the day of the water main break. Residents tried for two hours to get ahold of Suez.

Dan Altland, Borough Solicitor will do a letter to Suez; however Dan requested addresses for the residents involved. Scott will give Dan a list of cutting, digging and trenching permits for Linden Avenue requested by Suez.

Rich Stees suggested verifying where property lines are.

Ronda Kennedy-Rowe said her sidewalk is cracked and lifting.

Suez will take responsibility of the curb line sidewalk at the corner.

Lance Barthel asked Scott if the responsibility of the curb line sidewalk at the corner for Suez to repair was in writing. Scott said no it is by word.

Ronda said agreements need to be in writing not by word.
