

Marysville Borough Parks and Recreation Minutes November 2, 2020

In attendance: Zach Border, Kim Charles, Dave Magee, Alexandria Snyder (phone), Rich Stees, Brian Webster and Charles Wentzel

New Business

New York City Bus Trip – Scheduled for December 5, 2020

The committee agreed to cancel the bus trip and apply for lost revenue through the Cares Act.

2020 Pool Operations Report

Rich Stees went over the 2020 pool operation report he prepared with the committee. A copy of the report is on file.

Marysville Railroaders Memorial Park

Rich Stees presented the committee a drawing of the Marysville Railroaders Memorial Park. He said the main source of fundraising will be the pavers and he has volunteers lined up to help. Rich asked if the Union Street entrance can be blocked off when there is equipment there. The committee would like this added to the council agenda.

Hometown Hero Banners

The committee agreed this was a good idea and said they feel this should be done by the VFW. Rich Stees is going to reach out to Steve Thompson of the VFW to see if they would be interested. The committee agreed we could use some of our staff and equipment to help with the project.

Half Price 2021 Pool Memberships for Borough Residents

The committee agreed to offer half price 2021 pool memberships for the borough residents. The half price memberships will be on sale until Tuesday, May 25, 2021.

The committee discussed half price memberships for Rye Township residents if Rye Township Supervisors would agree to contribute $2,500.00 to the pool. Zach said he could attend Rye Townships meeting and discuss the contribution. The committee agreed to have Zach attend the meeting.

2021 Pool Rate

The committee agreed to increase all memberships except senior by $5.00. The membership prices are listed below.

Membership Type	Resident Rate	Resident ½ Price	Non-Resident
